North American Review Given Presimile of Penciled Memorandum.

Tangible avidence of this is a memorandum, the last penciled thoughts of the late president. To Coi. George Harvey and the North American Review, the country and the republican party are indebted for the publication of this interesting document which entries a message from him "who being dead yet speaketh." In the leading article of the current number of the North American Review, Colonel Harvey sets forth the vital import of the North Last penciled notation of Mr. Roosevelt died the acknowledged leader of the great party into which she was born, this last penciled notation of the state of the state of the great party into which she was born, this last penciled notation of the state of the great party into which she was born, this last penciled notation of the state of the great party into which she was born, this last penciled notation of the great party into which she was born, this last penciled notation of the great party into which she was born, this last penciled notation of the great party into which she was born, this last penciled not the provided thoughts of the provided throughts thoughts of the committee of the state of the same with 13,675 last year.

"Mr. Roosevelt died the acknowledged leader of the great party into which he was born. His last written words, peptiled by his own hand a few hours before his death and addressed in the form of a memorandum for the brilliant young man, for whose selection as chairman of the national organization he was largely responsible, were tion he was largely responsible, were ruary 14, had been set aftre 60 miles these, as reproduced elsewhere in off Anciète light as a menade to nav-ee thim; he must go to Wash-ington for 10 days; see Senate and House; prevent split on domestic policies."

"Here is evidenced as clearly as if the few words filled a volume Mr.
Roosevelt's realization of both his responsibility and his obligation. The simple memorandum marked the innuguration of a definite party policy, to be carried through to a no less definite canclusion, it was more than a passing thought or a mere suggestion, it was a more than a passing thought or a mere suggestion, it was a message, signi-fying the need of immediate and un-remitting vigilance in achieving complete unity of action in resolving domestic problems before attacking those of wider range soon to be thrust upon the country—a true sol-dier's call first to close the ranks. A Fitting Farewell.

the breadth of vision, the foresight the breadth of vision, the present the directness in method and the painstaking attention of the man. Nothing, too, probably could have served his purpose better than that these words should have been his last Difficult as it is to reconcile one's self to the decree of divine providence that the removal of that creat patriot at this crucial moment first to acknowledge, that the last trief to acknowled; that the westige of animosities which might have continued to impair his highest aspirations was buried with him, and thereby the perfect union which many of our American women are worn out, anemic, and suffering from the peculiar weakness of womankind. To build up, strengthen and cure these weaknesses, there is nothing so good as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This is a woman's true herbal tonic. It does not contain a particle of alcohol, nor anything deleterious to women's delicate constitution. For fifty years it has proven its merit, and can now be had in tablet as well as liquid form at almost any drug store, or send 10c for trial
